

Llangennith Newsletter October 2022

Llanrhidian Primary School have had an amazing autumn term so far! All the pupils have been engaged in a range of authentic activities both inside and outside their workshops linked to our topic 'What the Dickens', which is all about the Victorians.

#LlanPenguin have been on an Autumn hunt today. They worked as a team to find their treasures #LlanHum #LlanEco

Our outdoor space has been getting some excellent use. Pod Penguin and Pili Pala, who have been out exploring our grounds to see what they can find.

#LlanPiliPala This morning we went on a Autumn Scavenger Hunt around our school grounds. We spotted lots of signs of Autumn. 🍁🍂🍁 #LlanSci #LlanHum

#LlanPysgodyn These pupils worked as a team, they planned and designed their train designs during Choice and Challenge. #LlanExp #LlanFun #LlanChandCh #LlanLit

Pod Pysgodyn have been exploring trains and looking at these incredible inventions. Some excellent science and technology skills being put to use by the children.

#LlanPysgodyn enjoying their science investigation! Can you help Oliver Twist? Which surface will make the train go faster? 🌈🚂🚂 #LlanSci #LlanOut

Pod Pry Cop have been to the Waterfront and Swansea Museums, along with a trip to Theatre Na Nog to see 'The Trial of Elgan Jones'. This was a fantastic play set in Victorian times, based on a series of crimes that were committed at Margam Park. Was Elgan guilty or innocent? The pupils had to discuss and decide as the jury...

For a greater look at what we have been up to, why not follow us on Twitter? The hashtags #LlanHum #LlanOut and #LlanPV will show a range of the activities that the children have been doing this term from across the whole school.

Diolch yn fawr,

Llanrhidian Primary School

#LlanPryCop #LlanHum #LlanExp Watching The Trial of Elgan Jones @theatranog and having an amazing time 🍷🍷 diolch yn fawr 👍

