

We have had a different type of Harvest celebration this year at Llanrhidian. It was organised by Miss Walters and Mrs Josephs and it was all about the "Earth's Riches". To celebrate Harvest the pupils participated in lots of different activities. The pupils really enjoyed creating their pod scarecrows. This year we continued to support Matthew's house and we were very grateful for the donations of food. Matthew's House came to the school and the collect the donations from the Humanities pupil voice group.

Christmas is also going to be very different this year in Llanrhidian. Although, we are a very small primary school we knew that 'the show must go on'. We want to make Christmas even more special this year for the brilliant pupils we have. Here at Llanrhidian we have been very busy preparing for Christmas.

Instead of our usual Christmas fayre, we have decided to create an online shopping channel on the school website. Here the pupils can create adverts to sell their Christmas goods and raise money for their class funds. Every pod will be making their own craft and cooking items to sell on the shopping channel and all proceeds will be used by the pods to choose and buy their own workshop resources.

We are also selling other items that have been donated to the school to help raise funds and we are also selling our bespoke Katie Kneath artwork that she created with the pupils of Llanrhidian.

We also have the opportunity for parents and pupils to purchase a very special personalised message from Santa himself.

The pupils are also busy preparing for their Christmas virtual pod shows. We have now got a fabulous marquee in our school, where the pupils have been very busy practising their dancing and singing for their pod shows.

Everyone at Llanrhidian Primary School wishes you all a safe Christmas. We are very proud of the pupils in Llanrhidian who have shown this term how resilient and special they all are. We are looking forward to another busy fun term and I am sure we will share some of the lovely things we do with you all soon.

Nadolig Llawen a Blwyddyn Newydd dda!
