

Crofty

Population: Around 3,600

Location: North coast of the Gower Peninsula, Wales

Language: English (Welsh also spoken)

Country: Wales, United Kingdom

Special Facts:

Crofty has a long history of cockle gathering.

- It used to have seafood factories.
- There are beautiful views of the estuary.
- It is a quiet place with strong sea links.

Climate:

Crofty has a mild, coastal climate.

- Winter: Cool and wet
- Summer: Mild and breezy
- Often cloudy, with salty sea air

Wildlife:

- Wading birds like curlews and redshanks
- Wild ponies in the nearby marshes
- Seals can be seen near the water
- The saltmarsh is a protected area