

Population: Less than 1000

Location: North coast of the Gower Peninsula, Wales

Language: English (Welsh also spoken)

Country: Wales, United Kingdom

Penclawdd

Climate:

Penclawdd has a mild, coastal climate.

- Winter: Cool and wet
- Summer: Mild and breezy
- Often cloudy, with salty sea air

Special Facts:

- The women of Penclawdd were famous for gathering cockles by hand and selling them across the UK.
- There are beautiful views across the Loughor Estuary.
- Composer Karl Jenkins was born here.
- Home to Penclawdd Rugby Club, also known as the "Donks."

Wildlife:

- Oystercatchers, curlews, and herons
- Wild ponies in the marshes
- Seals and seabirds by the coast