

Rhossili

Population: Around 300

Location: South-west tip of the Gower Peninsula, Wales

Language: English (Welsh also spoken)

Country: Wales, United Kingdom

Special Facts:

- Rhossili Bay is one of the most famous beaches in Wales.
- The beach is about 3 miles long and has golden sand.
- You can walk to Worm's Head at low tide.
- The view from the cliffs is beautiful and attracts many visitors.

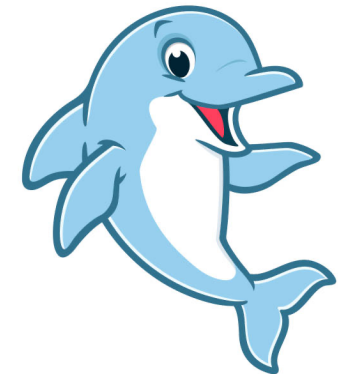

RHOSSILI BAY

Climate:

Rhossili has a coastal climate.

- Winter: Windy and cool
- Summer: Warm and sunny
- Often breezy with sea mist

Wildlife:

Seagulls and oystercatchers

- Seals near the rocks
- Dolphins in the summer
- Wildflowers and butterflies on the cliffs