

Should we wear uniform?

Lots of schools ask children to wear a uniform. Some people think that's a good idea, but others aren't so sure. Let's look at what people say.

Some people think children should all wear the same thing. It helps children look the same and keeps things fair. It also makes it easier for teachers to see their class when they go on a school trip.

But some children want to wear their own clothes. They like choosing what they wear and showing what they like. Uniforms can also be expensive if children need more than one for sport and cold weather.

Uniforms can be useful, but maybe children could help
